

Discover the Blueprint for Exceptional Provider Networks

Building a high-quality network is both an art and a science. For directors and managers tasked with network development or expansion, the stakes are high: patient outcomes, satisfaction, and organizational reputation all hinge on the strength of your network. At Fulcrum Health, network management of physical medicine providers is our core focus.

Through dedicated investment in our provider networks, we consistently raise the bar, establishing and upholding rigorous standards for our chiropractic, physical therapy, acupuncture, and massage therapy networks.

A physical medicine leader you can trust:

- Proven Patient Satisfaction: In 2024, 98% of patients who took our Provider Satisfaction Survey said they'd recommend their Fulcrum network provider to a friend or family member.
- Award-Winning Excellence: For six consecutive years, our network has been recognized with the Guardian of Excellence Award from Press Ganey for ranking in the 95th percentile in patient satisfaction.
- NCQA Accreditation: Fulcrum Health has earned accreditation from the National Committee for Quality Assurance (NCQA)—a leading organization that evaluates healthcare quality and performance—demonstrating our adherence to rigorous clinical standards and continuous improvement. We meet all industry best practices for credentialing, re-credentialing and utilization management.
